COOKIE POLICY

- What are cookies, pixels, and local storage?

Cookies are small files placed on your computer as you browse the web or use a web-enabled app. We use cookies to operate our services, discover how people use our services, understand how to make them work better and more.

Pixels are small amounts of code placed on a web page, in a web-enabled app, or an email. We use pixels, some of which we provide to advertisers to place on their web properties, to learn whether you've interacted with specific web or email content — as many services do. This helps us measure and improve our services and personalize your experience, including the ads and content you see.

We use local storage to save data on your computer or mobile device. We use data from local storage to turn on web navigation, maintain video player preferences, customize what we show you based on your past interactions with our services, remember your preferences, and measure ad effectiveness. We may also use local storage on other websites, where necessary to provide you certain features, to obtain information about your visits to those sites.

- Why do our services use these technologies?

Cookies, pixels, and local storage work to operate and support our business, and to help provide you with an improved experience.

They're used across the following categories:

- Authentication and security
- Functionality
- User preferences
- Analytics
- Research and development
- Personalized content
- Advertising
- Marketing
- Personalization across devices

Within each of these categories, cookies, pixels, and local storage help us:

Authentication and security

Authenticate your Traqstarz access to show you relevant content. They also help prevent unauthorized parties from accessing your account. We use these technologies to:

- Log you in to Traqstarz and our services.
- Help protect your security and the security of our services.
- Let you view content with limited distribution.
- Help us detect and fight spam, abuse, and other activities that break our rules.

Functionality

Deliver error messages, allow you to switch between accounts, coordinate our service across tabs in a browser, and provide certain features on partner websites.

User preferences

Remember information about your browser and your preferences.

Analytics

- Improve and understand how people use our services, including buttons and widgets.
- Optimize your experience by understanding how you interact with our services, like when and how often you use them and what links you visit, and from where. (We may use Google Analytics to help us with this.)
- Count the number of people who have seen a particular post, embedded posts, tracks, or activity feed.

Research and development

- Gather data about how you use our services, including how our services perform. This helps us detect issues, understand where we may improve, or develop new products or services.
- Test updates to Traqstarz services, as well as build new features, functionality, and services.

Personalized content

Personalize our services in areas like trends, stories, ads, and suggestions for people to follow with more relevant content.

We also use:

- Local storage to tell us which parts of your Traqstarz activity feed you've viewed already so that we can show you new content.
- Cookies to suggest who you might enjoy friending based on your visits to websites with integrated Traqstarz services.

Advertising

Personalize ads and measure performance, like showing you ads and evaluating their effectiveness based on your visits to our ad partners' websites. This helps advertisers provide you with high-quality ads and content that may be more interesting to you.

We'll also:

- Deliver ads, measure their performance, and make them more relevant to you based on criteria, like your activity on Traqstarz and visits to our ad partners' websites.
- Work with third-party advertising partners, including Google, to market our services.

Marketing

Deliver our email and web marketing campaigns and to understand our marketing effectiveness.

Personalization across devices

Understand which devices you used so that we can personalize your experience on all of your devices.

Keep in mind, if you ever log in to Traqstarz with your device, we associate and will continue to associate that device with your account. This means whether or not you're logged in, we'll receive information about your device(s) when information is shared by a partner, you visit traqstarz.com or third-party websites that integrate Traqstarz services, or you visit a Traqstarz advertiser's website or mobile application. Most commonly, IP addresses and the time we receive the data, are used to link that specific device with you.

18. GOVERNING LAW

These Terms shall be governed by and defined following the laws of Australia. Traqstarz and yourself irrevocably consent that the courts of Australia shall have exclusive jurisdiction to resolve any dispute which may arise in connection with these Terms.

19. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Informal Negotiations

To expedite resolution and control the cost of any dispute, controversy, or claim related to these Terms of Use (each "Dispute" and collectively, the "Disputes") brought by either you or us (individually, a "Party" and collectively, the "Parties"), the Parties agree to first attempt to negotiate any Dispute (except those Disputes expressly provided below) informally for at least thirty (30) days before initiating arbitration. Such informal negotiations commence upon written notice from one Party to the other Party.

Binding Arbitration

Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this contract, including any question regarding its existence, validity, or termination, shall be referred to and finally resolved by the International Commercial Arbitration Court under the European Arbitration Chamber (Belgium, Brussels, Avenue Louise, 146) according to the Rules of this ICAC, which, as a result of referring to it, is considered as the part of this clause. The number of arbitrators shall be three (3). The seat, or legal place, of arbitration shall be Sydney, Australia. The language of the proceedings shall be English. The governing law of the contract shall be the substantive law of Australia.

Restrictions

The Parties agree that any arbitration shall be limited to the Dispute between the Parties individually. To the full extent permitted by law, (a) no arbitration shall be joined with any other proceeding; (b) there is no right or authority for any Dispute to be arbitrated on a class-action basis or to utilise class action procedures; and (c) there is no right or authority for any Dispute to be brought in a purported representative capacity on behalf of the general public or any other persons.

Exceptions to Informal Negotiations and Arbitration

The Parties agree that the following Disputes are not subject to the above provisions concerning informal negotiations and binding arbitration: (a) any Disputes seeking to enforce or protect, or concerning the validity of, any of the intellectual property rights of a Party; (b) any Dispute related to, or arising from, allegations of theft, piracy, invasion of privacy, or unauthorised use; and (c) any claim for injunctive relief. If this provision is found to be illegal or unenforceable, then neither Party will elect to arbitrate any Dispute falling within that portion of this provision found to be illegal or unenforceable and such Dispute shall be decided by a court of competent jurisdiction within the courts listed for jurisdiction above, and the Parties agree to submit to the personal jurisdiction of that court.
